THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE JAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

FOR

COME TO

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedently low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their fashionable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

A WORD OF WARNING.

Some men are so much governed by passion or impulse, that they are always "grieving over spilled milk," or regretting what they have done in the past. Men, who act from principle, and who do a thing because they believe it to be right, have greater cause to complain of themselves, because they have omitted or neglected some duty. Such will be the bitter experience of those in this contest, should the result be damaging to the cause of civil liberty, who neglect to register and to vote for the Democratic nominees.

We can conceive of no satisfactory reason, which can be rendered to the conscience of an honest and true friend of the Constitution, who neglects in this crisis to register and to vote. There might be reasons, satisfactory to one's own mind, why he might take no part himself, but how can he relieve himself of the responsibility of non-action, in a matter which so deeply concerns his State, his neighbors, his children and future generations? The dearest interests of human liberty are involved in this contest!—One single vote, lost to the cause of liberty, humanity and the Constitution, might turn the scale against that cause and result in the establishment of despotism in the land for all time to come. THINK OF IT! Think of your responsibility and remember that you are not acting simply for yourself, in voting or not voting, but for posterity.—Have you conscientious scruples about taking the oath of a voter prescribed by the law? What is the real character of that oath? It simply obliges you to be a good citizen, to obey the so-called fundamental and statute laws of this State, so long as they are in existence! If you are a good citizen, no oath is necessary to compel you to do this; indeed, such an oath is simply foolish and unnecessary; but the party in power is determined to impose it, and hence we must submit to it. But the oath does not oblige you to approve of bad laws or bad Constitutions—indeed the oath does not indicate an approval, but simply compels you to obey the law, as long as it is law and so held. Suppose the Constitution of the State, and laws made under it, are unconstitutional, yet you only swear to support them, in so far as they are in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, and the oath does not oblige you to support them any longer than they are enforced as laws, and by no means prevents you from using your influence, at the ballot-box, to change them when a majority of the people determine upon it. Bad or unconstitutional they may be, but your very principles as a good citizen oblige you to obey them, until so amended or abrogated.

If these views are sound, how can you hesitate or demur? It is simply hypercritical to higgle at such matters, when your solemn obligations to your State and your posterity compel you to act. Our advice is; Register and vote, at all hazards. Strike for liberty and for the Constitution, WHILE YOU MAY. This may be the last call, the last opportunity, you may have, to save your country from the spoilers. Act at once,—THERE IS NO TIME TO LOSE!

IMMENSE DEMONSTRATION AT TAMMANY HALL.—An immense Democratic mass meeting was held on Wednesday evening at Tammany Hall and Union Square, New York. Fourteenth street, from Third to Fifth avenue, was illuminated with calcium lights. The grand stand, fronting Broadway, was draped with the American flag, and about it was inscribed, "We know no such word as fail." Tammany Hall was filled to overflowing. It was splendidly decorated with flags, transparencies and significant mottoes.

The audience was largely composed of ladies, and on the platform were many of the most prominent members of the Democratic party in the State and city. The meeting was called to order by Hon. Oakey Hall, who nominated for Chairman Hon. J. S. Thayer, who delivered an able address. At the conclusion of Mr. Thayer's speech Gen. Blair was introduced, his appearance being the signal for an outburst of the wildest excitement.

He said he bore to the Democracy of the city of New York the greetings of their brother Democrats of the West, who would wring from their adversaries the victory in November. He favored generosity and kindness toward the South. He desired this for the good of the North as well as the South.

He then proceeded to discuss the reconstruction acts, with the view of showing their unconstitutionality. He said that the outcry against himself was a contemptible electioneering pretence. If elected, he would have neither the disposition nor the power to inaugurate a revolutionary policy.

THAT "INFAMOUS DOCUMENT."

We publish, to-day, entire, as it appears in the Newbern Journal of Commerce, the atrocious "Circular Letter" addressed to the Union Leagues in the South from Washington City. This devilish and infamous document, as we have already observed, is responsible for nine-tenths of the disturbance and crime, which have been perpetrated in the South, within the past sixty days. It shows, in a glaring and hideous light, the incendiary and diabolical character and purposes of the Radical party,—their horrible designs upon the peace of society and their wicked hypocrisy towards the negro race. Its publication has created a fluttering among its guilty authors and abettors, and they are attempting, vainly, to deny its authenticity. This is what might have been expected. The criminal, when caught in his villainy, always pleads innocence.

It is charged, by an anonymous writer in the Radical sheet in Newbern, that the Circular was manufactured in that town, and that it was a "put up job" at the office of the Journal of Commerce. This allegation Col. Pool pronounces a "wilful, base and malicious lie, manufactured out of the whole cloth, for the evident purpose of withdrawing the public attention from the infamous document, that the author knew to be true, and the damaging effect of which he feared."

Why has not the money, which was found in the pocket-book, been called for? The owner had rather lose his money, than encounter exposure.

The Journal of Commerce thus effectually disposes of the allegation of the anonymous writer in the Radical paper in Newbern and fixes the authenticity of this "Circular Letter":

"Now, when Geo. Nason, Jr., or Charles Nelson, reputed managers of the Newberne Republican, wrote (or caused to be written) and published, the above article, they knew, or had the opportunity of knowing, that they were publishing an infamous falsehood which contained not even the "shadow of a shade" of truth.

That the article is false in general, and false in detail, we now proceed to prove.—This liar asserts that "before the pocket book was found the whole of that "circular" had already been set up in type, and was but awaiting to be put in the form, in order to be printed."

Now this false witness states that he was "in the secret, and knowing it" gives his knowledge to the public. He then cannot plead in future any mistake on his part, as he was "in the secret and knew" what he was about. That he knew that he was lying, the annexed certificate will prove:

"The article published in the Journal of Commerce on the 27th inst., commencing, 'Washington, D. C., Aug. 14th 1868.—Brother,' &c., was not handed in the office until after the pocket book containing it was found, on the night of the 26th inst., when we took the entire document, with the editorial comment of the editor of the Journal of Commerce, and, for the first time, put it in type. "GEO. E. PITTMAN,
"ROBERT R. HILL."

Having convicted the author of the malicious and wilful lie, told for a purpose, and that purpose the hiding of his own villainy, it is hardly necessary to pursue him further, but we will.

Lie No. 2 is contained in the assertion that "after the printer got through with it," (the circular,) it was put in an old pocket book, given to one of the numerous family who dropped it a few paces from the door of the Journal office, and it was immediately picked up by another member of the interesting institution, who, with a loud outcry, called the attention of several to it, and lo! a discovery was made!"

Note, if you please, how circumstantially this veracious writer narrates his incidents. He surely witnessed them all, and heard the "outcry" of "another member of the interesting institution." It is a pity to spoil his fine story, but here goes:

"We certify that we were conversing on the corner of Pollock and Craven streets at McLean's corner, the evening of the 26th inst., about dusk. That the pocket-book containing the circular letter dated "Washington, D. C., August 24th, 1868," published in the Journal of Commerce the morning of the 27th inst., was picked up by Samuel Radcliff, one of our number, and examined in our presence. In addition to the letter, the book contained a small sum of money, but nothing to identify it.

(Signed) S. RADCLIFF,
J. V. JORDAN,
J. K. FLEMING,
J. E. FLEMING,
R. H. HILTON.

I certify that, after reading the circular letter, I carried it to the office of the Journal of Commerce, and sent for Col. Pool and requested him to read it, and publish it. I am very certain Col. Pool never saw the document till I took it to him for publication.

No one connected with the Journal office was present at the time the pocket-book was found, and it could not have been long upon the street, or it must have been discovered.

SAMUEL RADCLIFF.

The gentleman who found the pocket-book and who handed the "Circular" to us, for publication, is one of the most respected and respectable citizens of the city—so far above the reputed managers of the Republican, in character, that we regret to be forced to bring his name forward, even to prove this libeller a false witness."

Read this horrible Circular, people of North Carolina, and learn more of the character of Radicalism than you ever knew before, with all your experience of its infamy and incendiarism!

THE CANVASS.—The vote in the three States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana at the late election amounted to 1,520,000 of which the Radicals had a majority of 25,000: In Pennsylvania 9,000, Ohio 13,000 and Indiana 1,000. The Democrats and Conservatives polled 750,000 votes in the three States. It is evident, from this show, that there are a great many people in the Northern States who do not believe in the wisdom and beneficence of the Radical policy. The Democratic vote polled in these States is so much larger than was ever given before, and the conviction is so strong that the small Radical majorities were owing to frauds, which cannot be repeated in the Presidential election, that the Democrats have renewed the canvass with a greater earnestness than ever, and are confident of SUCCESS. Work! Democrats of North Carolina! Do not have it said, after the election is over, that we, whose all is at stake, failed in manly effort, when others were laboring so gloriously! Know no abatement of zeal, energy, and labor until the setting of the sun on Tuesday next!

DO YOUR DUTY!

We support Seymour and Blair with no sinister motive, but from conviction and a sense of duty, as the best means of promoting the well being of the nation and the perpetuation of free government in the United States. We have used, and shall use, all lawful means to secure their election. No man, no citizen, no patriot, is at liberty to be indifferent in this crisis. No selfish or personal motive, either social or pecuniary, or the hope of promotion, can justify any man, before God or his countrymen, in jeoparding the great interests of society and of civil government, by either voting for Gen. Grant, because he may believe him to be on the strong side, or by neglecting to vote for Seymour, or not at all, because he may find himself among the defeated. The future good and glory and perpetuity of free government, of constitutional liberty, ought to be the ruling motive of every man, in this contest. Every one, therefore, is bound, first, to know or feel assured that he is right, and then to do his duty—to do his utmost to promote the right.

Have you done your duty? Have you done what you could to save your country from misrule and ruin? Is it your purpose to work and labor for that object, earnestly, without regard to consequences? If so, should we be disappointed—be defeated—you will have the consciousness of having made an honest effort to fulfil the obligations of a good citizen. Then you can leave results to the Controller and Disposer of all things, and not charge yourself with bitter consequences.

We are encouraged to hope strongly, maugre all the vauntings of our opponents, and the croakings of the despondent, that the Democratic nominees WILL TRIUMPH in this contest. There is nothing in the events which have transpired to lead us to doubt the success of our principles. The history of elections in this country have been far more surprising, close up to the termination of the contest, than would now be the triumphant election of SEYMOUR AND BLAIR, on Tuesday next. The race is not always to the swift, nor the battle to the strong. Let every Democrat and Conservative do his duty, and leave the results to the Judge of all the earth, who will do right!

HON. SION H. ROGERS.

This gentleman completes his canvass, to day, after having done his duty thoroughly, ably and efficiently. Now, friends, do your duty by him. It will be a burning shame and disgrace, if, on account of your indifference or inactivity, or from any cause, Sion H. Rogers,—a gentleman so universally esteemed, so intimately identified in interest with you, so competent to represent you, so worthy in all respects,—should be defeated by the Indiana adventurer, who signalized his purchased Congressional career by an effort to arm the negroes against the whites, and who has no claim, of any description, to your confidence and support. If you will do your duty, half so well as Col. Rogers has done his, his election is certain!

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans and St. Bernard Parish Quiet—Order from Gen. Rousseau.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 28.

The city is quiet, and as far as heard from so is St. Bernard parish. The following order was issued this evening by General Rousseau:

"HEAD'QRS. DEPARTMENT LOUISIANA } AND ARKANSAS, }
NEW ORLEANS Oct. 28, 1868. }

To the People of New Orleans, La.:

Fellow-Citizens,—I have received instructions from the authorities at Washington to take such action as may be necessary to preserve peace and good order and protect the lives and property of the citizens. As the city is quiet to-day, I think it a proper time to call upon the law-abiding citizens to aid me hereafter in carrying out these instructions; and to that end they are earnestly requested to refrain from assembling in large bodies on the streets, to avoid excited conversation and other causes of excitement, and to pursue their ordinary vocations as usual.

The police force of the city has been reorganized, and inefficient members have been dropped from the roll and others appointed in their places, and General J. B. Steadman has been appointed chief of police by the Board of Police Commissioners.

General Steadman and his police force will be supported by the military and assurance is given alike to the peaceful and the lawless that everything at my command, and to the utmost of my ability, will be used in the endeavor to obey these instructions.

For the present, political processions and patroling the streets by armed men are prohibited.

LOVELL H. ROUSSEAU,
Brevet Maj. Gen. Commanding District."

The Metroplitan Police Board desired to suspend Superintendent Williamson, but he refused to be suspended, and was accordingly arraigned for dismissing the negro policemen without consulting the Board, plead guilty, and was dismissed. The Board had previously endorsed Williamson in the course for which he was dismissed. Gen. Steadman, at General Rousseau's request, has accepted the position pro tem. and is allowed to choose his own subordinates.

The City Council this evening setting forth the unconstitutionality of the Metropolitan Police law, and directing the Mayor to organize a municipal police under the charter of the city, Mayor Conway immediately conferred the appointment of Chief on Gen. Steadman.

The report about the First United States infantry, telegraphed here from Washington, excites the indignation of its officers, who denounce the letter (calling it a partly rebel regiment) as a malicious falsehood.—The regiment was recruited almost entirely from discharged United States soldiers, and not a single man ever served in the Confederate army. The number of recruits don't exceed five per cent. of the enlisted men, and they were received from Northern recruiting States. The Washington Star's article, though speaking of enlisted men, is regarded as an insult to the officers and reflection on the discipline of the regiment.

The next Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, N. C. District, will be held at Mt. Pleasant Church, in Guilford county, on the 2d day of December next.

From the Newbern Journal of Commerce.

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS!!

U. L. & C. G. LEADERS URGE THE NEGROES TO RIOT FOR PARTY ENDS.

Letter from Headquarters.

READ IT EVERY ONE!!!

Read, white men of the South, read the infamous instructions sent out from Headquarters at Washington city to the leader of every Union League in the South. Colored men, read them! They tell you the estimation put upon you by the leaders whom you have sworn to obey. You are their slaves—they say it, and you now can read for yourselves the damnable means they have employed to make you such. Will you be longer duped? Shall they incite riots and get you killed that they may make political capital at the North? Shall they "burn your cabins," "kill your stock" and "destroy your crops" to excite you against your natural friends, the Southern whites? Will you, can you be longer led by these base men?

Men of the North, of every shade of political opinion! You can now see clearly whence have come the murders, the arsons, and the riots in the South, out of which so much political capital has been made with you at the expense of the people of that section, and the Democratic party—can you permit the party whose counsels, advice and instructions have led to such fatal results, and who have gone so deep in crime, longer to rule?

WASHINGTON, D. C., }
August 24, 1868. }

Brother:

It is with feelings of deep regret and alarm, that the Loyal body of the U. L. & C. G. learn that the negroes of the South are leaving the Republican ranks and identifying themselves with the Democracy, and to such an extent is this disaffection existing among the negroes in each and all the South-ern States, that it is now by only applying severe remedies, and by unceasing labor, that we will be enabled to control the electoral vote of the South.

The Society has sent a copy of this circular to each leader of the U. L. & C. G. in each Congressional District throughout the South, and it looks to you for a faithful performance of each of the following suggestions:

You will make your usual reports, and by the former channel, and state precisely the state of affairs in your District, and if you continue to lose from your ranks, or are gaining back the recreants.

Firstly. You must hold tri weekly meetings of your league, and as much oftener as the interests of the party and the excitement of the negroes will admit. During the session tell them of some outrage, (imaginary, if necessary,) as having been committed against their race by the Conservatives, and in strong terms denounce the guilty perpetrators. Then swear them to secrecy, and by your usual methods make an impression on their feeble minds, and convince them of your plan to place them in power, and make them the masters of the South, &c. Deplore their present position and argue with them that it is THEIR FAULT ALONE they do not possess the farms.

Secondly. Drill them like soldiers, and be prepared for any emergency. Control the negroes like slaves. Keep them in alarm and excitement all the time, and have one a spy upon another.

Caution the backsliders of the vengeance of the U. L. & C. G. and by intimidation and the love of power and freedom threaten them with evil. Should indifference or apathy exist among them, you must then appeal to their IGNORANCE, charging the Democracy with a scheme to re-enslave them, and, in failing to do this, they propose to kidnap them as soon as Seymour and Blair are elected and sell them in Cuba and Brazil.

Thirdly. You must promise them farms, mules and bread for voting for Grant and Colfax, and assure them that they would have been supplied with them long since, had not Andrew Johnson and the Democracy interfered. They are credulous enough to believe this, and by such assurances you can work to a good advantage.

Fourthly. Promise them the majority of all the offices as soon as Grant and Colfax are elected, stating in excuse for inquiry (delay!) that their Northern and Southern friends demand them at present, but they shall have their choice after election. You can calm their excited demands with this, and when once in power, we can act as we please.

Fifthly. Prejudice their minds against the fact that the native Southerners are their friends, and poison every friendly relation existing between the two races, and state that they only allow them to work their farms for profit, and the fear that the Republican party would confiscate them, and give them to the negroes. Impress upon their minds that the lands rightly belong to them; exhort them, however, not to attempt to possess them, at present, but never allow them to lose sight of their imaginary and assumed ownership. Denounce the Conservatives, and convince them that it is this power alone that is keeping them out of possession. They are avaricious and stupid enough to credit this.

Sixthly. You must abuse the Democracy by calling them "Copperheads," "Rebels," "Secessionists," "Traitors," "Slave holders," &c., and educate the negroes to do the same, and rather than arrest any ill feeling, irritate it, and unite the negroes on the side of their race. You can thus be instrumental in provoking a riot, and we will make the most of it in the campaign. A riot now, such as was inaugurated in New Orleans and Memphis, is what we want and need. Should you find the negroes, after argument, disposed to be peaceful, advise the Secretary in time, and orators from the North will be sent you, who are well qualified for the business and can render you valuable assistance in your work.

Seventhly. At every Democratic meeting, deploy your men about, and disturb it as much as possible. If riot ensues, at once charge it upon the Conservatives, and telegraph the U. L. & C. G. at once, as we may have the first news published in our favor.

Eighthly. THE NEGROES ARE OUR SLAVES, AND WE MUST USE THEM. Nothing must be left undone from keeping them from identifying themselves with their natural friends and interest; and should you find them disposed to do so, BURN ONE OF THEIR CABINS, KILL THEIR STOCK, AND DESTROY THE CROP AND CHARGE IT AS THE WORK OF THE CONSERVATIVES, who are ever bent on vengeance on the African, and whose prayer is to ruin him, and burn the roof from over the heads of his children, and on the spot volunteer aid in rebuilding it. Their prejudice and sympathy and ignorance will be enlisted in your behalf; and a corresponding enmity ripened against the native Southerner.

The foregoing is intended to be strictly confidential; which will come under the heading of your oath. And, as soon as you have read and understand it, and your duty, you will then destroy it, and without any delay commence on your work. You must be vigilant and untiring in your exertions, as we cannot afford to lose the Southern vote, and by complying strictly with the above, and charging all disturbances and outrages upon the Democracy, will enlist the sympathy of the North with us.

By order of the
U. L. & C. G.
Secretary 713.

A FEW DAYS MORE.

A few days more, and the question who shall be President of the United States, will be decided, and we doubt not for a moment that Gov. Seymour will be the choice of the friends of constitutional liberty.

Let our North Carolina friends never give up the ship as long as there is a hope that she will outride the tempest of fanaticism that shakes her timbers from centre to circumference.

The Democratic party of the North are making a desperate fight for the Constitution, against the minions of Radicalism, and we are yet confident that the cause of truth and justice will triumph over usurpation, corruption and tyranny!

Let us not despair of the Republic, until the last vestige of common sense has departed from the people, and all feelings of patriotism are extinct.—Petersburg Express.

DIVORCES.—The increasing prevalence of divorces in some sections of the country is seriously to be deprecated. The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church have taken a wise stand, and deserve the thanks of all who care for the public morals, for adopting the following resolution:

"That no minister of this church shall solemnize matrimony in any case where there is a divorced wife or husband of either party still living, but this canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery or to parties once divorced seeking to be united again."

NEW YORK.

THE

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Read the advertisement of W. H. Crow, Esq., General Agent of the Ætna Life Insurance Co. It presents one of the most striking illustrations we have ever seen of the benefits of Life Insurance, and is calculated to make a profound impression. The working of the Ætna plan, in this instance, is admirable.

Salt, Family Cheese, Coffee, White Peas: G. T. Stronach.

New Law Books: Williams & Lambeth, Booksellers, Fayetteville Street.

Order by Gen. Miles.—We received, last night, (too late for insertion, this morning,) an Order by Gen. Miles, invoking quiet and peace in the ensuing election, and congratulating the people that the "record of North Carolina is yet unmarred by acts of lawlessness,"—a rebuke to the mendacity of the Radical press, North and South. The spirit of the Order is commendable, and we hope will have the effect desired. It shall appear on Monday.

School Notice.—We are requested to state that the closing session (for the year) of the school of Rev. Dr. Mason and Mr. S. G. Ryan will commence on Monday. Parents will please take notice.

Chaplain G. W. Pepper, U. S. A., registers here as a North Carolina voter; and yet the Woman Insulter announces that "Rev. Ged. W. Pepper of Ohio, will address the people of Rutherfordton, on Saturday, Oct. 31."

Cotton Oil.—Our friend, Dr. W. R. Miller, of this County, has been manufacturing Cotton seed oil and cake, for years, on a pretty large scale, at his Factory, in Wake.

We learn that Messrs. Wade & Howard are putting up a Cotton seed oil factory in Newbern.

Another Robbery.—We learn that the stables of B. P. Williamson, Esq., in this City, were entered on Thursday night, and his buggy and wagon harness stolen. The rogues, now-a-days, seem to have a special hankering after harness.

Fair Warning!—A number of negroes under twenty-one years of age,—and some, even, under twenty,—have registered in this city. Their names have been ascertained, and their former owners are ready to make oath, from the record, that they have not attained the legal age.

No challenging is allowed on the day of election, but we hereby give fair warning to these negroes that, if they vote, they will be prosecuted for the perjury. The law affixes heavy penalties of fine and imprisonment.

Orange.—We are greatly gratified to announce that there will be no division among the Conservatives of this county in regard to the State Senatorship. On Saturday last, in accordance with agreement, a county meeting was held in Hillsboro, at which a correspondence between Maj Jno. W. Graham and Col. J. C. Webb was read, after which Maj. Graham was unanimously nominated.

Saved from such Fate.—It is said by the Richmond Enquirer that some of the Radical leaders in Virginia still contemplate the calling together of the late Virginia Convention this winter, and that journal calls upon Gen. Stoneman "to spoil this programme and spare us further mortification, as well as the means necessary to pay the current expenses of the State government." The object of the movement is supposed to be to make a raid upon the State Treasury, which shows some symptoms of recuperation from the state of almost hopeless exhaustion in which it was left at the adjournment of the Convention. Virginia is now about again making an effort to pay the interest on her debt, and should the farce of a Convention come together now, the funds which should honestly go to her creditors, as her people would wish, would be, as they were on the former occasion, diverted therefrom and squandered most uselessly on political adventurers and ignorant freedmen, who are their tools.—Balt. Sun.

It is unfortunate that the Public Treasurer of Virginia should have made his recent exhibit of the financial condition of the State,—showing that there is now about $173,000 in the Treasury. It might have been anticipated that such an expose would have been the signal for a raid by the carpet-baggers and scallawags. They are death on the spoils—from greenbacks down to old carpets!

THE RESERVES COMING.

The Cleaveland Plain Dealer states, that, by a preconcerted arrangement, twenty thousand Hebrew voters in Ohio stayed at home, last Tuesday, all of whom will go to the polls in November, and vote against Grant. From this reserve of a single class in a single State, we may judge the strength of our reserve of the two classes in Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. It is plainly overwhelming. It is in itself enough, and more than enough, to seal the doom of Grant and Colfax.

THE MASS MEETING AT BANKS'!

Large and Enthusiastic Gathering!

We learn that about fifteen hundred people (including about three hundred fair ladies) were assembled at Banks,' on Thursday, on occasion of the Mass Meeting and Barbecue. The enthusiasm was most inspiring, and our friends of Panther Branch District out did themselves in the generous profusion of "good cheer" which they had provided.

The Eastern Ward Democracy of this City went down in force, mounted, with beautiful sashes and banners, preceded by a Brass Band of Music. Their arrival at Banks' was greeted with loud acclamation. They were welcomed, in a brief and eloquent manner, by Col. Geo. H. Faribault, who was most happily replied to by R. C. Badger, Esq.

Previous to their arrival the Auburn Club, (with its excellent band of music,) the Swift Creek Club, and the Club from Johnston had reached the spot, and appropriate addresses of welcome and acknowledgment had been interchanged.

Dr. A. E. Smith, as Marshal of the day, with his efficient Assistants, did everything to make the occasion pass off decorously and pleasantly.

The first speaker was the Hon. D. G Fowle, who addressed the people, for nearly two hours, in an effort of very great ability and power. We are told, by those who heard him, that Judge Fowle was never more forcible and impressive. He was listened to with intense interest, and aroused a feeling of great enthusiasm.

After dinner, (which was most bountiful and well-served,) Col. Wharton J. Green, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., and R. C. Badger, Esq., spoke, in effective and capital speeches, as they always do.

Later in the evening, Stephen Rand and Geo. Yarborough (both colored men) were called on and responded in some very earnest and telling remarks, addressed to the men of their own race present.

The entire occasion was a glorious one, and has given an additional impetus to the good cause all through the Southern section of the county.

TO THE CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Fellow-Citizens:—The numerous complaints made to this Department of murders and outrages, committed by wicked and inconsiderate persons, excited by intense party feeling, made it my duty to issue the late proclamation, calling upon all good and true men, without respect to political predilections, to unite in a determination to discountenance and denounce lawlessness and violence, and in an effort to recover and maintain the good name that has heretofore been the heritage and the pride of our beloved State. It is now my pleasing duty to congratulate you upon the beneficial results that have ensued from the admirable and well-timed address of Gen. Hampton and the Executive Committee of the Democratic party. In honest and impressive terms they have called on the people to support the laws, to preserve the peace, and to denounce those crimes which have so recently been committed in some portions of our State. These patriotic counsels cannot fail of having a wide and wholesome influence in moderating the vehemence of feeling of those, to whom they are authoritatively addressed, while they have quieted the apprehensions and conciliated the respect and good will of their political opponents. This is certainly a just cause of congratulation to every well wisher of the State, and it gives me unfeigned pleasure to acknowledge it, and to earnestly invoke the co-operation of every member of the Republican party in reciprocating, to the fullest extent, the pacific policy so admirably inculcated by the Democratic leaders. Let acrimonious and irritating discussions be avoided, and appeals be made to the intelligence and reason, and not to the fears or passions of the community. Differ as we may in political sentiments, it is the dictate alike of wisdom and patriotism for all to appeal to, and confide in, the efficacy of peaceful remedies for political evils, actual or supposed. Let "bear and forbear" be our maxim, and so shall the peace, and prosperity and honor of our beloved State be maintained and perpetuated, and her time-honored escutcheon will be preserved, unsullied and undimmed, in all its original purity and lustre.

ROBERT K. SCOTT,
Oct. 29, 1868. Governor.

Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, is not a native of the State, yet we have been pleased at the evidences of consideration and real interest in the well-being of the people, which he has generally exhibited. The above address is so well conceived, so kindly expressed, and evinces so much of the true spirit of an Executive, that we readily publish it. If our "Executive" had shown the same spirit, how different would be the state of feeling in this State!

The Baptist State Convention is in session the present week, in Hillsboro.

From the National Intelligencer.

A WORD TO THE SOUTH.

We are glad to see that the people of the South are using every energy to cast the votes of their respective States for the Conservative candidates. We sincerely trust they will not relax, but, on the contrary, increase their efforts. Even in the event that their votes shall prove unavailing, it is none the less, but even more, a duty for them to do their best. If they fail to bring out their vote, it will at once be claimed that they are indifferent to the great issues involved, and that they are acquiescent in the infamous tyranny placed over them.—The moral effect of the Southern white race voting almost as a unit against this monstrous injustice will have an admirable effect everywhere. We shall then see an overwhelming majority of the white men of the country arrayed against the Radical party. The knowledge of their own strength will give them greater power for the future, and will teach a salutary lesson of caution to their adversaries. The great struggle for liberty is barely begun. We stand to day where our ancestors stood six hundred years ago in Great Britain. It is our mission to rescue from tyrants and usurpers the priceless safeguards of liberty, the heritage of which our enemies would fain rob us, and to make these monuments of freedom once more a power in the land. This work is no mere holiday pastime. The doctrine of a free press, a jury trial, the supremacy of the civil over military power were all held sacred. Now they are derided and set at naught by every military upstart. In the end we will teach these men their places, and punish as criminals all who may hereafter dare to trample on the birthright of the citizen.

STATE MATTERS.

The following significant notice appears in the advertising columns of the Wilmington Journal:

"Application will be made to the next General Assembly of North Carolina, to investigate the accounts of the present officers of New Hanover County. Also, to know if public officers are authorized to shave or offer to shave claims against the county, and enquire as to the solvency of the bonds of said officers, and for other purposes."

Forty-six withdrawals from the "Union League" in Rutherford are announced.

The white men of Edgecombe, Nash and Wilson are registering their full strength.

The North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist E. Church (South) meets in Statesville, on the 2d of December.

Mr. Trueb, Agent for the Messrs. Atkinson, of Johnston, in procuring emigrants, is in Newbern. It is stated that there is no difficulty in procuring any number of industrious and worthy laborers. Mr. Trueb has already two hundred more selected for the Messrs. Atkinson and Hon. W. T. Dortch.

The State Council Friends of Temperance meets in Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 9th of December.

The Democrats of Wilmington are beginning to come up in the matter of registration. By election day, there is reason to hope, they will all have done their duty.

The Board of County Commissioners of Craven have swept away the last vestige of Old Craven, by abolishing the precincts established years ago, and in their stead making out boundaries for nine Townships. These Townships will greatly inconvenience the people, as they will have to go many miles from their homes for the purpose of voting, holding meetings, &c., without any corresponding benefit.

The action of the Commissioners will have to be approved by the Legislature before the new arrangement goes into operation.

The Grand Lodge of Masons for North Carolina meets in Raleigh, on the 7th. of December.

The Executive Committee of the Democratic Club of New Hanover have requested the merchants of Wilmington to close their stores and suspend business on Tuesday next, with a view to paying strict and undivided attention to the election.

A Democratic procession in Wilmington was rocked on Tuesday night last by concealed Radical villains. The Journal serves the following timely warning:

"The citizens of this city are warm and earnest in their assertions that the disgraceful scene of Tuesday night last must not be repeated. This experiment of throwing rocks into our processions has been tried, previously, but it can be attempted once too often for the good of those who thus violate the peace. We feel sincere in our assertion that, if indulged in again, it will be attempted once too often. We write in no threatening manner—our purpose is to warn—but as High Heaven is their Judge, our people have sworn within themselves that forbearance with them has ceased to be a virtue. A pity for the poor, deluded wretches, who are the blind instruments in these proceedings, has had its effect upon them, but they are not proof against insult and know how to retaliate and to punish, and know when and by whom punishment is deserved.

We trust our words of warning will be effective. None more heartily desire peace or would do more for its preservation than the white citizens of Wilmington; but let it be again violated and such outrages again perpetrated, and they will struggle no longer to avert the blow which must fall upon the guilty heads of those who will insist upon insulting us."

The N. C. Christian Conference will be held at Selma Chapel, Forsyth county, on the 13th of November next. Conveyances will be at High Point to carry delegates to the meeting.

HIGH HANDED PROCEEDINGS OF GEN. REYNOLDS.

Gen. Reynolds, the military commander in Texas, is going it with a high hand in his district, endeavoring to out-Sickle Sickles and out-Gessler Gessler. He has issued many orders lately, and each successive one seems to be worse than the preceding. The latest exploit of the General is a direct interference in the business of a civil court, without any appearance of cause or justification. To-day President Johnson received the following dispatch from Texas:

Richmond, Texas, Oct. 26, 1868.

His Excellency Andrew Johnson, President of the United States:

The following order was received here by telegraph:

To Judge McFarland, Richmond, Texas:

For reasons made known by the Governor and Attorney General, you will continue until next term the causes involving the question of heirship to the estate of J. C. Clark, deceased.

J. J. REYNOLDS, Brevet Maj Gen.

We regard this order as a great military usurpation. It is addressed to a Judge of a civil court, directing him how he shall decide the question of continuance. Both parties are present and represented by counsel—case ready for trial. Shall the commander of the district control the judiciary? We ask you to revoke the order.—Answer.

R. C. TRIGG.

John T. Harcourt, plaintiff's counsel,

The reception of this dispatch from the Texas lawyers has not tended to heighten President Johnson's estimation of the eminent fitness of Gen. Reynolds for his position. In fact the President is very much annoyed at the officious and dangerous intermeddling of this man Reynolds in civil matters, which might very well be left to the State authorities even in unreconstructed Texas. But the President is powerless in the matter. He can do nothing to help his petitioners, and therefore, to the question, "Shall the commander of the district control the judiciary?" he could only reply as he did to-day to the parties who appealed to him all the way from Texas, that under the Reconstruction laws of Congress he had no power to revoke the orders of a military commander; that his hands were tied and he was perfectly powerless, and that the only person who could give relief was the General in Chief of the Armies. The indignation caused by Reynolds' course is not confined to the President and democrats, but exists also among many officers of both parties and some prominent republicans.—Reynolds is regarded as an incorrigible mischief maker, who goes out of his way to make reconstruction and military rule unpopular and oppressive.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, repeating its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were loaned does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of impostable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizure and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will have, as a consequence, subjugated people, and the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this power, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause), in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partisans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our fixed purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our distracted country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au., 14, 1868.
